Two itinerant evangelists, the Rev. R. E. Baker and his wife, are in Peekskill, holding open-air Two itinerant evangelists, the Rev. R. E. Baker and his wife, are in Peckskill, holding open-air meetings and attracting much attention and making many triends. They travel from place to place in a two-seated survey, drawn by a team of handsome coal-black horses. The entire rig was presented to them on May 13 last, before they, cift their home, in Peorla, Id. In that city they founded the Door of Hope Mission. They are travelling for the purpose of raising funds to build a tabernacie which will seat fifteen hundred persons. It is proposed to build this structure of steel trusswork and in such a manner that it can be shipped as freight and erected in any town. Both Mr. and Mrs. Baker are reverends, having been ordained to the ministry at Louisville, Ky., August 14, 1895.

A schooner at the lower pier is attracting considerable attention. She came in on Friday, is named the Studio and is commanded by Captain and Mrs. S. D. Miller. They came from Jacksonville, Fla., and are going to Abany, stopping at different points. The boat was originally a filibuster in Cuban waters. She has an interesting history. Captain Miller was an artist and lived North. Owing to his wife's Ill-health they went to Florida. Mrs. Miller recovered her health, they had the craft built and began cruising. The vessel is loaded down with curiosities of the sea and land, and since she has been here has been visited by hundreds of men, women and children.

CORNELIUS A. PUGSLEY CHOSEN TO DIRECT THE AFFAIRS OF THE WESTCHESTER COUNTY NATIONAL BANK OF PEEKSKILL

There was an important meeting of the directors of the Westchester County National Bank in Peekskill on Saturday. Cyrus Frost, for eleven years the president of the bank, resigned his office and there was a general shake-up among the bank officials. The directors elected Cornelius A. Pugs-ley, the cashler of the bank since 1879, to be presi-dent. Cyrus Frost was made vice-president, in the place of Mr. Pugsley, who was vice-president as well as cashier. George A. Ferguson, assistant cashier, was advanced to the cashiership, and Robcashier, was advanced to the cashiership, and Rob-ert Brotherton, teller, was made assistant cashier. Mr. Ferguson has been with the bank fifteen years, and Mr. Brotherton ten years. Cornelius A. Pugsley, the new president, is well known in banking circles in the city of New-York and elsewhere. He was born in Peckskill on July 17, 1850, and is a descendant of the well-known brake family. He was clerk and assistant post-master in the Peckskill postoffice in the sixtles.

TAX-DODGING DENOUNCED.

A COMMITTEE OF THE CENTRAL LABOR UNION TO SEE THE GRAND JURY ABOUT CERTAIN CORPORATIONS.

he committee appointed to investiga that certain wealthy corporations and individuals were not paying the taxes that they should pay These charges were brought about seven months and certain mysterious individuals hovered about Clarendon Hall, where the Central Labor Union holds its meetings, and were anxious that the Central Labor Union should take the subject up. It was rumored at the time that politics had much to do with bringing the charges, or at least with pushing them. The Central Labor Union finally took up the charges, because the majority of the delegates to that body believed that workingmen who pay rents were deeply interested in eeing that corporations pay their just share of the sxes. It was alleged that in consequence of certain corporations and others evading their share of the burdens of taxation the owners of tenementtouses were more heavily taxed, and that the bur-

justice:

Resolved, That we, the delegates of the Central Labor Union, representing the mass of workingmen in this city, place the stamp of disapproval upon the tactics of public officials who are endeavoring to shield these corporations.

Resolved, That we demand that the officials who have betrayed the trust reposed in them by the people be now arraigned before the bar of justice and summarily dealt with.

The report of the compilter was inaccimantly

The report of the committee was unanimously adopted, and the meeting then took up the difficulty between the Manhattan Musical Union and cuity between the Manhattan Musical Union and the Theatrical Protective Union, whose long and redious buttle was fought all over again. Eugene Johnson, delegate of the Manhattan Musical Union, moved that the seats of the delegates of the Theatrical Protective Union to the C. L. U. be declared vacant on the ground that the union had fulfed to compel the managers of the Fourteenth Street Theatre to employ in their orchestra members of the Manhattan Musical Union. War was waged over this resolution, until William J. O'Brien de lared that the Manhattan Musical Union had naked the Theatrical Protective Union to do something which was impossible. As president of the Board of belegates, he said, he had had considerable experience with strikes, and the Board never ordered strikes when it did not think it could win. The motion to expel the Theatrical Protective Union was finally tabled.

THE MALTSTERS TRUST A FACT.

OUT ON WEDNESDAY. The Malisters' Trust, about which more or less has been written of late, and the successive steps in the formation of which have been recorded. It now sabl to be permanently organized. All the de-tails are declared to be completed, and it is sabl that a full outline of the organization will be made public at a meeting to be held on Wednesday. For the last ten days a score or more of representative of the Senate's Sugar Investigating committee in the owners of tenement-houses were paying taxes on the full valuation of their property, whereas some of the corporations and owners of vast business structures were paying taxes on only from 20 to 25 per cent of the value of their possessions. The committee's counsel is Dr. W. J. O'Sullivan, and its members. Mr. Harris said, would go before the Grand Jury to-day in relation to the charges. Not only were the delegates to the Central Labor Union interested in the subject, Mr. Harris declared, but every small real estate owner also.

The following resolutions were then introduced and passed:

Whereas, The Law and Legislative Committee of the Central Labor Union is now engaged in bringing to notice a number of wealthy corporations who by wilful perjury have evaded the full payment of their taxes as prescribed by law;

Whereas, Every workingman in this city who pays rent is directly interested in the struggle for justice.

Resolved, That we, the delegates of the Central Labor Union, representing the mass of workingmen in this city, place the stamp of disapproval upon the tactics of public officials who have betrayed the trust reposed in them by the people be now attained before the bar of justice and summer of the stamp of disapproval upon the tactics of public officials who have betrayed the irrust reposed in them by the people be now attained before the bar of justice and summerally dealt with.
